

The following is an estimate of savings this department has shown since the installation of surge suppressors within our complex. With the cost of dedicated lines and circuits being approximately $700.00 per terminal, we have installed suppressors at strategic locations for 128 terminals on a WANG VS-100.

Total savings is close to $100,000.00 dollars without any restraints in additional terminal hook-ups.